

Stories on data protection

Home Office's visa service apologises for email address data breach \(Gdn, 2022\)

Redcar and Cleveland Council: Four serious data breaches reported \(BBC, 2022\)

Tens of thousands of NHS patients' private medical information leaked in shocking data breach \(Mail, 2022\)

Jersey children's services inquiry into online data breaches \(BBC, 2022\)

Highest payouts made by Welsh councils to public and employees revealed \(Nation, 2022\)

Former Sussex Police officer convicted of data protection offence \(2022\)

Google and Apple among tech groups probed by ICO on endangering children \(FT, 2021\)

Doctor is set for possible £100,000 pay-out after judge's landmark ruling that her neighbour's Ring doorbell cameras breached her privacy \(Mail, 2021\)

GDPR: Welsh government breached data laws 300 times since 2019 \(BBC, 2021\)

Privacy group targets website 'cookie terror' \(BBC, 2021\)

UK suggests removing human review of AI decisions in data protection laws \(FT, 2021\)

Met removes hundreds from gangs matrix after breaking data laws \(Gdn, 2020\)

England's test and trace programme 'breaks GDPR data law' \(BBC, 2020\)